

If I Live or Die

If I live to see tomorrow
Who will house all of my sorrow

If I live to see the day
Who will help me ease my pain

If I make it to morning light
Who will hold me through the night

And if I die,
Who will remember me when I am gone

Who will speak for me when I've been silenced
Who will speak out against the violence

Who will fight for me when I'm gone.
